Dates: October 13 - 17, 1996

The 42nd Annual Conference on Bioassay, Analytical, and Environmental Radiochemistry will convene in San Francisco 13 - 17 October, 1996. This annual Conference is a vehicle for chemists, physicists, and dosimetrists to gain insight, share experiences, and develop solutions to problems in a very informal setting. The hosts for the 42nd annual meeting will be Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory, Berkeley National Laboratory, Thermo NUtech Corporation, and Pacific Gas and Electric company.

The meeting will be held at the Cathedral Hill Hotel in a central location in San Francisco. October in San Francisco is generally indian summer weather with warm days and cool clear nights. The Cathedral Hill Hotel is three blocks from Japan Town, eight blocks from Davies Symphony Hall and Union Square, and about two miles from Fisherman's Wharf. The hotel is on main bus routes and four blocks from a Cable Car route. Many fine restaurants and shops are within walking distance. The hotel has reserved a block of rooms at $87 (plus tax-currently 12%) per night for conference attendees. The rates are good from October 10 through October 20. The block of rooms will be held until September 13, 1996, so be sure to reserve early.

We are soliciting ideas and volunteers to conduct the workshop sessions on Monday, October 14. Vendors will be invited to participate in the meeting and display their products throughout the meeting. Deadlines for submitting titles, abstracts, and workshop suggestions are shown below.
