

BAER '98 Conference Workshop
EG&G Instruments

Electronic Data Handling / Exchange in the Laboratory Environment

EG&G Instruments will host a workshop centered on the use of "Electronic Data Handling and Exchange" capabilities in the counting laboratory environment. This forum is intended to provide an opportunity for laboratory personnel to exchange both past experiences and future plans for embracing concepts and technologies supportive of efficient data flow management.