

Strategic Weapons in the 21st Century: Implications of Change and Our Priorities

Ronald Reagan Building – Washington DC
January 28, 2010

Co-hosted by Los Alamos and Lawrence Livermore
National Laboratories

- 7:30 – 8:15 Conference Registration/Continental Breakfast
Rotunda Room
- 8:15 – 8:30 Welcome and Introductions
Michael Anastasio, Director, Los Alamos National Laboratory
George Miller, Director, Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory
Thomas Hunter, Director, Sandia National Laboratories
- 8:30 – 9:00 The Nuclear Posture Review: Introduction to the Issues and Changes in Policy
Introduction by Michael Anastasio
- ❖ James N. Miller
Principal Deputy Under Secretary of Defense for Policy
- 9:00 – 10:30 “Inward Look at the NPR, QDR, and Arms Control: Implications of Changes for the U.S.”
Moderated by Thomas Hunter
Discussants: Chris Chyba, Miriam John, Robert Joseph, Frank Miller
- 10:30 – 10:40 Break
- 10:40 – 11:15 View from the Administration
Introduction by George Miller
- ❖ The Honorable Ellen O. Tauscher
Under Secretary for Arms Control and International Security

- 11:15 – 11:45 Capitol Hill Perspective: A View from the House
Introduction by Michael Anastasio
- ❖ The Honorable James E. Langevin
United States House of Representatives
Rhode Island
- 11:45 – 12:45 Lunch
- 12:45 – 2:15 “Outward Look at the NPR, QDR, and Arms Control: Implications of Changes for Others”
Chaired by Guy Roberts with James Acton, Camille Grand, Ken Jimbo
- 2:15 – 2:45 Capitol Hill Perspective: A View from the Senate
Introduction by George Miller
- ❖ The Honorable Richard G. Lugar
United States Senate
Indiana
- 2:45 – 4:45 Roundtable Discussion: Near Term Priorities and the Path Forward
Introduction by Michael Anastasio
Chaired by John Hamre and Larry Welch with Ashton Carter, Thomas D’Agostino, Michael Nacht, Keith Payne, James Schlesinger, Andrew Weber
- 4:45 – 5:30 Reception and Closing Remarks
Michael Anastasio
- 5:30 Adjourn
George Miller