

Community College Institute of Science and Technology (CCI)

Issue No. 77

Program Coordinator

Name Scott A. Robbins

Phone # +1 505 667 3639

Program Description:

The CCI program provides funding to support summer Laboratory internship in science, technology, and engineering. The Dept. of Energy program is intended to provide technical work experience to community college students.

Primary Outcomes:

Student participants will transfer into a 4-year school or enter the STEM workforce.

Areas Served:

Nationwide;

Grade Level:

Undergraduate;

Leading Organization:

STBPO-EPDO

Program Address/Mailstop:

M709

Number of Individuals Served by the Program per Fiscal Year:

6-7

Year Program Started:

2011 at LANL

Program Partners:

Lab scientific and technical organizations

Funding received:

$70K

Resources/Materials provided to program participants:

Other funding sources:

Program Cost:

$70K

Other learning objectives:

Best Practices:

The focus upon community college students is a unique feature of the CCI program.

How program outcomes are accessed:

Participant surveys

Reporting Requirements:

End of program year assessment and report

Cost per participant:

$10K

Participant Application Process:

Described at: <http://science.energy.gov/wdts/cci/>

Program Recruitment Initiatives:

Work closely with UNM-LA and Santa Fe Community College students

Targeted Diversity Groups:

American Indian and/or Alaskan Native; Hispanic and/or Latino;

Type of Program:

Student Programs;

Program Website/URL:

<http://science.energy.gov/wdts/cci/>

Projected Length of Program:

Summer;

Primary funding source:

Government;

Program Evaluation:

Formal/Internal;
