

For your calendar

December 12, 2018

December 14-16: SWAIA Winter Indian Market

Do your holiday shopping with Native artists at La Fonda in Santa Fe, and enjoy live music, dance and other events as you pick from authentic jewelry, pottery, paintings and weavings.

December 14-31: Glow Holiday Light Display

The Santa Fe Botanical Garden is transformed for the holidays into a festive delight with light installations and live music.

December 15: Santa Fe Desert Chorale

The Santa Fe Desert Chorale opens its 2018 Winter Festival with a 4 p.m. performance at United Church of Los Alamos. The performance is dedicated to the memories of longtime Chorale supporters Frances White and her husband Hywel, a retired Laboratory employee who passed away this year.

December 17: Science on Tap

Laboratory researcher Amanda Barry will discuss developing biofuels from algae at this informal all-ages event at unQuarked in Los Alamos.

December 17: Las Posadas at Pecos National Historical Park

More than 3,500 farolitos, holiday songs, biscochitos and hot drinks await attendees at this festive event at Pecos National Historical Park.

December 18: TED Talk Tuesday

Every Tuesday at noon, bring your lunch to projectY in Los Alamos, watch a TED talk and discuss. See each week's topic here.

December 25: Christmas Day

December 31: New Year's Eve Celebration

Ring in the New Year on the Plaza in Santa Fe, with music, bonfires, and food trucks. This year, fireworks will light up the night sky as 2019 arrives.

January 25: Española Valley Chamber of Commerce Banquet

Save the date for this high point of the year in the Valley, as the community comes out for the Española Valley Chamber of Commerce banquet.

Los Alamos National Laboratory

www.lanl.gov

(505) 667-7000

Los Alamos, NM

Managed by Triad National Security, LLC for the U.S Department of Energy's NNSA

